The parties to this second appeal have amicably settled the matter and the counsel for the parties have presented a joint compromise pursis in the Court today. The joint compromise pursis is taken on record and marked as Exh.Z. The joint compromise pursis is signed by the appellant no.2 for herself and for appellant no.1 who is a minor. The pursis is also signed by the respondent nos. 1 and the respondent no.2. Similarly, the counsel for the appellants and the counsel for the respondents have also signed the joint compromise pursis. The parties have stated in the compromise pursis that they are ad idem over the terms and conditions mentioned in clauses (a) to (e) of the compromise pursis.

and parties expressed that they have agreed over the terms of the compromise recorded in clauses (a) to (e). The second appeal is, therefore, decreed in terms of the clauses (a) to (e) mentioned in the joint compromise pursis. It is also stated in the pursis that the parties undertake to withdraw all the litigations instituted against each other unconditionally and further undertake that they shall not initiate any proceedings against each other so far as the share of the deceased Uddhav Shende is concerned.
